

Asparagus Yields – Now & Later

North Central Research Station 2013

Nutrient	#/Acre
Nitrogen	110
P2O5	35
K2O	105

Jersey Knight (For complete trial details see 2013 ACLF Research Report)

BCL416211BPI

In-season applications of AgroLiquid fertilizer can lead to more uniform yields than conventional fertilizer options NOW. Including foliar applications of fertiRain after the asparagus goes to fern each season will help your yields LATER, the following season. Many years of research at the North Central Research Station shows these changes lead to more efficient use of plant nutrition is not only possible, it really works.